Small Things

ICEBREAKER: When was the last time you did something nice for someone?

Not just for a fellow Christian, but for someone you know who seems to show no interest in having a relationship with Christ.

SCRIPTURES: Luke 15, Matthew 10:42

Sometimes when we hear the word evangelism we can feel a bit overwhelmed. We may think of it as difficult and unnatural for us. Yet evangelism should be simple, natural and very "do-able". In our scripture, Jesus spoke about giving a cup of cold water to a little child, I think we are all capable of that.

Here are some ideas on how you can evangelize through relational acts of kindness:

- Asking someone "How are you?" and really listening to them.
- Praying for a co-worker behind their back.
- Asking a waiter, your hairdresser, mechanic or doctor about his life outside of work.
- Being unusually interested in someone else (neighbor, co-worker, child's teacher, etc.).

Is there anything you can think of? Are they worth your time and effort? I think so.

Like the sheep, coin and son in Luke 15 they are not lost, just missing. It's our responsibility to help them find their way to God.

ACTION: Pray!
